

Project title:	Capacity Enhancement of Nepal Police to contribute to Peace Process effectively
Name of Implementing Agency:	Nepal Police
Contact Person:	Divisional Chief, Research and Planning Directorate
Status:	Ongoing
Cluster:	Security and Transitional Justice
Duration:	2 years
Location:	Across the Country (Bharatpur, Butwal, Nepalganj, Dipayal Training Centers, National Police Academy and Police Head Quarter in Kathmandu)
Beneficiaries:	Police Personnel, Conflict affected women and girls, victims of Sexual and Gender Based Violence
Budget:	NPR. 234,421,950/-

Description:

The proposed project will be fully owned and implemented by the Nepal Police. There will be a direct involvement of Nepal Police in carrying out all essential activities such as planning, site investigation, drawing, designing and implementation of the project.

Goal:

The goal of the project is “Gender sensitive approach is ensured within the institution of Nepal Police.”

Purpose:

To build the capacity of Nepal Police and increasing the number of women Police in Nepal Police through development of women friendly infrastructure and gender responsive policing.

Output:

- 1) Increased sensitization among women to join Nepal Police as a career option.
- 2) Physical facilities of Women Police in Nepal Police are improved at the central and regional levels.
- 3) Police personnel are trained to serve women and children who are conflict affected and victims of Sexual and Gender Based Violence.